

Privacy Notice

Oklahoma County Master Gardeners operate a website for the benefit of our users. We are aware that you, our users, care about how personal information is used, and we appreciate your trust that we will use it carefully and sensibly. By visiting our website, you are accepting the policies and practices contained within this Notice.

Personal Information Gathered

The information we obtain from visitors helps us create better online experiences for our users. This is what we may gather from you:

Information you give us

We receive, and may store, any information you provide on our website and give us in any other way. You can choose not to provide certain information, but as a result, you may not be able to take advantage of certain services or features. We may use information collected during current browsing sessions to provide you a more customized experience in the future. We may also use this information to improve our website and better communicate with you.

Automatic Information

We receive, and may store, certain types of information when you interact with our website. For example, we may store your computer's internet address, information about your web browser, URLs of referring website, and your site navigation histories.

Email Communications

We may use any email address you provide to communicate directly with you. To help us communicate more effectively with you through email messages, we may receive a confirmation when you open messages from us if your computer supports such capabilities. We require that all email addresses provided to us to be valid: otherwise, we may disregard them.

Information from Other Sources

We may receive and store information about you from other sources and add it to our customer databases. All information supplied to us through our website becomes the property of Oklahoma County Master Gardeners.

Sharing Information

We may release personal information when we believe that a release is appropriate to comply with the law; enforce or apply agreements; or protect rights, property, or the safety of any party. This includes exchanging information with other organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

Use of our website

If you choose to visit our website, your visit and any dispute over privacy is subject to this Notice. We stand behind the promises we make and will never materially change our policies and practices to make them less protective of our user information collected in the past without the consent of the affected users.

If you have any questions regarding your orders or this Privacy Notice, please contact us.
